

JUSTICE AND PEACE REPORT

The Interfaith meeting on 17th November attracted over 60 people, about half from our communities, and half from other communities. The talk by Dr. Michael Wetzler a liberal Jew was inspiring and led to many thoughtful questions. It was very much in the spirit of modern Interfaith. I am concerned that we see very few if any young people at our meetings and this is something our group needs to address.

The next event will be the Holocaust Memorial service at St Mary's Apsley on Sunday 31st January. I hope there will be a good representation from our parishes.

The recent Apostolic Constitution initiative from the Vatican and the apparent discourtesy shown towards the Church of England has certainly not helped relationships with that Church or other communities. Hopefully we can redress this at a local level.

Richard Dodd

January 2010.