CHRIST THE KING

He has no throne or crown, yet Christ is indeed a King. He comes to us to establish a kingdom – the kingdom of God and tells us that we are children of love.

As the compassionate king, Christ says – yes, there is struggle – all the way. Be free. Be yourself – how?

...“By prayer. I don't mean saying prayers. I mean the kind of prayer where you leave all your thoughts and images behind, your phoney-self, and find your true self in God. At the same time we find everybody else there. And we realise how we are all one in God, and everything else follows” Thomas Merton
