Jesus began His public ministry reading and proclaiming God's word. Ezra began a renewal of the Israelite nation by reading and teaching God's word. We too can begin this year with an extensive time in God's word.

Today's scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing as we reflect on the words of Blessed Mother Teresa of Calcutta.

“Many today are starving for ordinary bread but that is not the only kind of hunger there is. There is another kind of hunger, the hunger to be wanted. Nakedness too is not just the want of clothes. It is also the loss of dignity, loss of purity, loss of respect. And there is homelessness, not just the want of a home made with bricks, but the homelessness of being rejected, of being unwanted, of being unloved in a throwaway society”.

God's word will help us know ourselves better by judging the thoughts and reflections of our hearts. God's word will make us fully competent and equipped for every good work.
